

GOLDEN WEDDING

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Hogan of this city was happily celebrated at G. A. R. hall Saturday afternoon, a company of about 125 friends, including their children, the G. A. R. veterans and their families and old neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Hogan gathering to bring congratulations and good cheer. At one o'clock a fine dinner was served by the W. R. Corps, after which a social afternoon followed. Rev. G. W. Lutz offered prayer. In behalf of the company Rev. C. D.

present with us today to enjoy this celebration. As a small token of esteem from your comrades, we present you with this cane. May it be of use and support to you in your daily avocations for the remainder of your days." Both Mr. and Mrs. Hogan responded fittingly, expressing their appreciation of the gathering in their honor and of the gifts. Dan W. Hogan and Miss Alice Phalen were married at Cambridge, Washington county, N. Y., May 28, 1858. They lived in Hebron, N. Y., and and presented to Mrs. Hogan a beautiful gold mounted umbrella, a hat pin, and other gifts, and from the children to their parents a fine clock and a set of table ware. Later Comrade P. Bump, in behalf of McIntyre post, G. A. R. presented to Mr. Hogan an elegant gold headed cane. He said: "We have come together to pay our respects to our old comrade and his esteemed wife on their fiftieth anniversary. We are pleased that they have been spared by the hand of Providence to be with us at this time. It is but one instance in many thousand where people are permitted to celebrate their fiftieth anniversary. There have been twelve children born to them, ten of whom are now living and most of them Hogan enlisted in Co. K, 1st Conn. Heavy Artill. and served three years in the Civil war. After the war he and his family moved to Hebron, N. Y., and lived there until 1877, when they came to Austin and have lived in this vicinity since. They lived in their own place in Lyle township for over 15 years, coming to Austin three years ago. Ten children are living: John Hogan, Carthage, Mo.; Mrs. Alice Clough, South Dakota; Mrs. Minnie Wardall, Stacyville,; W. Dee Hogan, Osage; James Hogan, Northwood; Geo. E. Hogan, Moscow; Mrs. Etta McGhan, Stacyville; Frank Hogan, Northwood; Mrs. Josie Champion, St. Ansgar; Herbert Hogan, Austin. We wish for Comrade Hogan and his estimable wife many happy anniversaries.

10 June 1908

M. C. Transcript